YEARS OF INVOLVEMENT

Dr. Beyer was a dedicated professor at Greensboro College for many years. Before she taught here, Dr. Beyer was a student at G.C. When asked what she thought about how different things are now she replied, "It is harder today to be a student at G.C. because the rules are not as strict as they were before. You have to make more decisions for yourself. In the '60's most of your decisions were made for you." Dr. Beyer also adds, "The hardest thing for me when I began teaching at G.C., was to teach with the people who used to teach me. It is hard to think of them as colleagues, because I still think of them as professors."

Many students have benefited a great deal from Dr. Beyer's teaching. Leanne Dolan was one of these such students. Leanne said, "... She really helped me to secure my decision to be a history major with her wonderful personality and advice." She was a very popular teacher. Sharon Kingdon was quick to reply that, "Dr. Beyer was one of Greensboro College's best assets. She was concerned with every student as an individual ... She will be embedded as one of my fondest of memories."

Dr. Beyer will be missed by all who came to know and love her. The 1988 Echo would like to dedicate this book to a fine friend and professor, Dr. Carolyn Beyer.

The original Main

Main with the Rotunda

Main as we see it now

It all began in 1833 when Rev. Peter Doub, Pastor of Greensboro's Methodist Church, established Greensboro Female School with the hope it would one day become a college. This year with it's largest enrollment ever, GC celebrates it's Sesquicentennial. In 1937 Rev. Doub petitioned the VA Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church for a female college in Greensboro. As a result of this move, on Dec. 28, 1838 the State Legislature chartered Greensboro Female College. This college was of great importance, for it was the first woman's college in NC and the second oldest chartered college for women in the nation.

GC as we know it now did not come about, however, without a long hard struggle and many changes. Fires in Main Building in 1863, 1904, and 1941 resulted in Main having to be rebuilt three times. Much of the school land had to be sold to keep the school from closing. Building after building was added as the school grew. In 1954, GC went coed with the first male students being admitted as day students only. In 1956 the school became fully coed. Two years ago the dorms began going coed and today East Dorm is a coed dorm.

This year's Echo honors the 150th year of GC's existence.

BEGINNING THE SESQUICENTENNIAL

Parents are good for more than just paying the bill.

Moving the freshmen in, a hectic process that takes place each year, was even more hectic this year. For as we began the 150th year, the largest freshmen class was enrolled here at GC. The mentors had their work cut out for them, as cars, trucks, and vans pulled in loaded with televisions, stereos, clothes, posters, and anything else imaginable. Luckily East Dorm residents could take the elevator up and down, but what about those that lived on third floor of Greensboro and West Dorms? Oh well, I guess they survived. Freshmen got to meet their roommates, unpack, and settle into life at GC before the upperclassmen returned a few days later. The moving in process was a little less hectic and intense for the upperclassmen. Greetings were given to old friends and so the year began at Greensboro College.

A TRADITIONAL WELCOME

Finch Chapel is where the official ceremony of the opening of the academic year takes place.

Dr. Hutson greets all with a positive attitude about the year ahead, the 150th year since the founding of the college.

In their academic regalia, the faculty take their seats as convocation begins.

William Caffrey and Dr. Likins are all smiles as the opening of the 150th year went well.

Greensboro College traditionally begins school with their academic convocation to recognize outstanding achievements by our students. Both students and staff are invited to participate. This year's convocation for the Fall semester began in conventional fashion with the procession of faculty in their academic regalia. Following an invocation by Dr. James Hull, greetings were given by Pres. Likins, William Caffrey, Chair. of the Board of Trustees, and Laura Wescott, SGA Pres., welcoming students, old and new, to the 150th year of Greensboro College. Dean Vanderwerff announced Dean's List, Alpha Chi, Student Marshalls, and those students taking part in the Honors Degree Program. Sue Crammer, a senior music major, was acknowledged as the recipient of the 1987 Presser Foundation Scholarship.

Dr. Likins invited Dr. Hutson, former Pres. of GC (1952-1964), to give the keynote address. Dr. Hutson gave an intriguing talk about controversy in higher education. Activities continued after the address with a luncheon in the Gold Dining Room for both faculty and alumni.

TRADITIONS

Many dances were held outside in the '50's and '60's.

The traditional Festival of Lessons and Carols still occurs at GC each year.

Since the guys will live here for nine months, they made their room as homey as possible.

OLD AND NEW

Ladies, are you enjoying the snow?

Rooms of today are much like they were in the past with life's major necessities — a fan, stereo, and refrigerator

Alright, so women have not changed. They still sit around and gossip.

Boy did we have fun this year!

Pool has become a major pastime at GC.

WELCOME BACK DANCE

A few G.C. students are "Rocking down the House" at this year's Welcome Back Dance in the Student Union.

The first dance gave new G.C. students a chance to "Mix and Mingle".

Everyone showed their enthusiasm for the start of a great year in the Stu.

Come on guys, get up and dance!

HALLOWEEN DANCE

with the G.C. gang.

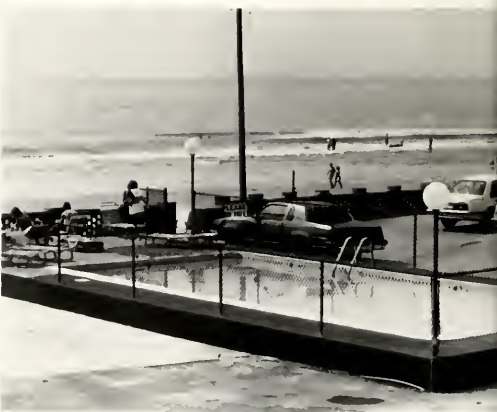

The whole group unpacks for the big weekend.

It was a long trip and Amy looks ready for the sun.

So far, not first class.

Nothing like getting an early start in the sun.

CATCHING THE LAST OF SUMMER

Robin enjoys a day in the sun.

Each year a group of students, along with Wayne the Student Union Director, take a trip to the beach in October. This year's trip was a good one with everyone having a great time and staying out of trouble.

Cindy and Kristy rinse off a day's worth of salt and sand in the motel pool.

The whole gang sunburnt and tired, but happy.

The girls head towards the water for a refreshing swim.

ABRACADABRA

Inspired by the Magician, Wendy learns a magic trick.

Stuart mesmerizes the audience with some incredible magic.

A dangerous trick! Not really to this magnificent magician.

OCTOBERFEST

Each year as October comes to an end, G.C. students begin to look forward to the weekend of Octoberfest. This weekend sponsored by the Student Union includes; Stu activities, picnics with lots of food, a live band on back campus, hot-air balloon rides, and some good fun in sun with friends. Once again Octoberfest was a successful event.

GIVE BLOOD TODAY

All students this way please. to give blood.

HELPING THE NEEDY

Give blood? No, just a can of food was all that was needed to attend the Student Union's Benefit Dance for the needy. The benefit dance was the final event of the food and clothing drive for the needy sponsored by the GC Jaycees, UAAS, and Mentors. All those who contributed at the dance were eligible for door prizes.

Everyone danced the night away. There was an atmosphere of pride and commitment for helping those less fortunate in the Greensboro City Community. The dance was preceded by a large food and clothing drive in the Stu and cafeteria for several weeks.

WINTER ROSE AFFAIR

Each December area college students have the chance to dance the night away at the Winter Rose Affair. Being one of three semi-formal dances held throughout the year, this dance provides an atmosphere perfect for ending up the semester. This year's dance, held in the Coliseum Blue Room, included everything from good food to entertaining music. To keep the action going, the disc jockey, from Sounds Unlimited, combined music to please both the rockers and the lovers. Earlier in the evening door prizes were given. The night was indeed memorable for all who attended.

CHRISTMAS AT GC . . .

Santa Claus, a Christmas Dinner, the Festival of Lessons and Carols and Open House at the Likins' are the main events in Greensboro College's Christmas Celebration. The campus was decorated with lights, wreaths, and luminaries which added to the beauty of the season. The Dinner and Open House brought the GC community together socially, while the annual Festival of Lessons and Carols united us spiritually.

ENTERTAINMENT TONIGHT

— SPRING FLING WEEKEND

Spring Fling Weekend got off to a rolling start with a performance by Lionel Norman from the Comedy Zone. "The Blades", a Rock Band, also provided live entertainment later that evening. Saturday's events began with a picnic accompanied by the sounds of "Myth". The Coliseum Blue Room was the setting for the Spring Fling Dance. Saturday night's music by "Marble Faun" helped make it an evening to remember. Sunday afternoon it was serious business as the Battle of the Sexes got underway. It was a hard fought battle down to the bitter end with the guys pulling out a slim victory. The busy weekend ended with a picnic provided by our own cafeteria.

CELEBRATING

Greensboro College's year-long celebration of its sesquicentennial officially began on Saturday, April 23, 1988 when the Mayor of Greensboro Victor Nussbaum, proclaimed April 23-29 as Greensboro College Week. GC hosted "Festival on the Green" on its front campus which featured musicians, vocalists, and dancers from Greensboro College, the city of Greensboro, and surrounding areas. Words of greeting were sent from President Ronald Reagan, as well as NC Governor Jim Martin. There was a historical pageant reenacting Peter Doub's founding of the college as well as refreshments and birthday cake for all. This was truly a day to remember in the history of Greensboro College for all who attended, including the many Alumni that were here for Alumni Weekend.

"There is an awkward and joyous feeling knowing that my career at Greensboro College is complete. However, the past four years especially the times spent with friends, students, faculty and staff will remain in my heart and mind forever."

"In my four years at Greensboro College I have been able to achieve all my goals. However, I would not have been able to accomplish everything I set out to do without the aid of the faculty and staff. Everyone at Greensboro College has played an important role in my life and with this support I will graduate with the upmost confidence."

"I can best sum up what I've learned throughout my experience at Greensboro College by sincerely stating that, what the individual student puts into his experience at GC is what he will get out of it on both an academic and professional level."

"I believe that Greensboro College has given me the opportunity to excel that might not have been possible at a larger college or university. The interaction of faculty and staff with students is the main factor that sets GC apart. This interaction encourages students and gives them support. The relationships isn't just in the classroom it extends far beyond. I have made many friends that I intend to keep far beyond graduation."

"Time is one of the most precious ingredients. Everyday brings 86,400 seconds — whatever isn't used is lost forever. Time is too precious to let it slip away."

"The excellent Lifelong Learning Program has enabled me to reach the culmination of a lifelong goal. Being in the business world without a degree makes one feel as if you must constantly look over your shoulder. Having my degree will now help to ensure that the business world will recognize the potential that I already knew I had. Thank you GC!"

HONEY BEES

The Greensboro College Honey Bees are the hostesses at the Hornets' basketball games. They welcome guests as well as provide programs and assistance. They also run the Hospitality Room as a service to faculty, staff, parents, and Hornet Nest's members who attend.

NCSL

The North Carolina Student Legislature (NCSL), composed of twelve delegates is one of the most active organizations on campus. In NCSL, delegates from colleges and universities all over the state meet at a host school one weekend out of each month and debate on resolutions. In November, Greensboro College co-hosted an interim council with UNCG. It was one of the most productive interim councils this year. On March, 11 delegates went to Raleigh and debated bills in the State Capitol for five days. NCSL is a way to get students involved with political issues that affect NC as well as the nation.

G.C. CHORALE

The Greensboro College Chorale is a mixed chorus under the direction of Dr. Frederick Beyer. The group performs a variety of music and they appear at special events, Chapel services, the Festival of Lessons and Carols, and various Churches in the community. The GC Chorale is opening to all students who like to sing.

STAGEBAND

The Greensboro College Stageband is made up of some of Greensboro College's finest musicians. They entertained us this year with various types of music. Concerts were given in both the Student Union at Christmastime and Odell Auditorium this spring.

ALPHA CHI

Alpha Chi is a national academic society, which honors students elected to membership, and also gives them responsibilities and opportunities. Members are chosen from the top five percent of the junior class and the top ten percent of the senior class. Our chapter sponsored Alpha Rent-A-Chi in which members worked for college faculty and staff for donations to the club. These funds helped to send the three representatives to the Regional Convention in Atlanta. Alpha Chi also presents awards for academic excellence to both college and area high school students.

Elizabeth Decker, Misti Hospodor, Lee Anne Bowinkelman, Amy Rio, Cindy Garner, Robin Owens, Kim Shoffner, Becky Carpenter, Carol Burns

BETA BETA BETA

Beta Beta Beta is a biological honor society which emphasizes stimulation of scholarship, dissemination of scientific knowledge, and promotion of biological research. Students are chosen for either active or associate membership by their GPA and by how many hours of biology have been taken. Our chapter at GC, the Tau Theta Chapter, is just one of the many chapters in the United States and Puerto Rico. Each year, Beta Beta Beta is responsible for the greenhouse and has an annual plant sale during the spring semester.

CEC

The Student Council for Exceptional Children is the student counterpart of a national organization (CEC) which works to improve the laws and conditions of Exceptional, meaning above or below the norm, children. The major project we accomplished this year was a MDA Superdance in honor of the MDA Poster Child, Josh.

Irene Oakes, Josh, Tracy Miciotto, Shelia Maness, Kim Shoffner, Laura Wescott, Moriah Safford, Lauren Watson, John Coggins, Wendy Hammonds

S.C.F.

The Student Christian Fellowship is a non-denominational organization open to every Greensboro College student. They host weekly programs with a variety of speakers, service projects, Bible studies, retreats, sharing groups, recreational activities, several chapel services throughout the year, and light our campus with luminaries at Christmastime.

ECHO

"Deadline! Deadline! Deadline!" To an Echo staff member this word is frequently used in everyday conversation. Capturing the essence of student life around campus through pictures is only a small part of the overall job. Students are able to look back on past events that made the year so special . . . the exciting basketball games, dances, convocation, and graduation.

Cynthia Galunas, Laura Wescott, Wallace Lambert, Carolyn Smith, Kelly Farmer, Kyle Malmin, Rebecca Petras, Lora Lancaster

COLLEGIAN

The Collegian is a monthly publication that serves as an active voice for the entire Greensboro College community. The Collegian concerns itself with presenting the most prevalent and interesting news GC has to offer in an unbiased manner. As in the past, the Collegian sold Valentine's Day personals as its fund raising activity. Some of the more popular articles this year centered on the College's 150th celebration, Parent's Weekend, Spring Break, Sports and Spring Fling activities.

GREASEPAINT AND HALOS

Greasepaint and Halos Clown Ministry seeks to make God's love known to others through the art of clowning. This year Greasepaint and Halos has spread the word of God by conducting worship services in Finch Chapel, including a powerful Maundy Thursday service. Because of their gentle nature, the clowns relate well to children and have enjoyed clowning around at many school carnivals in the Greensboro area. This has been an exciting year for Greasepaint and Halos because each member has contributed his or her own special gifts to the clown ministry and has made the ministry very strong.

P.E. CLUB

The Physical Education Club is not strictly for PE majors, however, emphasis is placed on physical activities. We were in charge of operating the concession stand for Athletic Events and donated drinks to the officials, teams, and hospitality room. We inform our members of the state PE convention and encourage all members to attend. We also encourage members to join the State and National PE Associations. This year we hosted a reception of Kay Yow when she spoke on campus. We also donated a directory board for the lobby in the gymnasium. Our main project was the Jump Rope for Heart. This year we raised $622.60 for the American Heart Association.

BACCHUS

BACCHUS is a national organization which promotes responsible drinking for those college students who choose to drink. They also sponsor campus activities as alternatives for drinking. BACCHUS has sponsored mocktail bars, hosted speakers, held a car smash, observed National Alcohol Awareness Week with an Alcohol Knowledge Quiz, and distributed information to the campus about drinking responsibly.

S.G.A.

The Student Government Association is a Legislative body who represent the students. The SGA is composed of five executive officers, representatives from each dorm hall, dorm Presidents and Class Presidents. The SGA sponsored several successful events, the National Smoke-out adopt-a-smoker, Homecoming and a Faculty, staff and student luncheon. The SGA is proud of their success and accomplishments this year.

ALPHA KAPPA OMEGA

Alpha Kappa Omega is an honorary society accepting second semester sophomores, juniors, and seniors. AKO recognizes high scholarship, outstanding character, and leadership among women. This organization is involved with campus, dorm, college, and community activities.

JAYCEES

The Greensboro College Jaycees are a driving force in community service on campus and in the surrounding area. The 1987-88 school year was highlighted by a successful fund raiser for Multiple-Sclerosis and periodic campus wide clean ups. Another success during the year was a collection of relic clothing and non-perisable food items for the needy. This project was assisted by the UAAS and the GC Mentors.

AMS

Chuck Volkman, John Waugh, Ken Defeo, Chris Barrass, John Waverick, Dr. William Frazier, Gabriela Castillo, Deborah Helmer, Becky Carpenter, Sandy Williams

AMS is best described as an Education/Business interaction. The Greensboro College chapter consists of business, legal administration, and accounting majors. Here students have the opportunity to increase their knowledge and experience through close contact and association with members of the local business community.

UAAS

The United-Afro American Society kept busy this year. Among their projects was a fashion show featuring mens' and womens' clothing. This was held in Odell. Another event UAAS sponsored was the beauty pageant which was won by Monique Partee.

The GC Soccer Team finished the season with a final record of 8-8-2 and a final conference record of 4-3. The Hornet's season was not without some great performances; a trio of keepers tended the nets, freshman Brian Roberts and Chris Coll gained experience from senior keeper Tim Guter. The Team's leading scorer was a freshman Jason Tremper, who had 15 total points from 5 goals and 5 assists. Tremper was followed closely all season by junior Hal Adams, who finished second with 10 points. The entire team put forth a great effort to lead the Hornets to a promising season. Coach Doug Hamilton said, "I only wish we had a few more games and then maybe things would have gotten on track." Congratulations are in order for the G.C. Hornets Soccer Team.

Jim sets up the offense.

The Greensboro College Volleyball Team had a winning record of 21-14. They were ranked second in the regular season, ninth in the nation and second in the DIAC Tournament. The Hornets experienced their first ever tournament victory at the Mary Washington Tournament. Coach Jean Lojko sums up the season, "Overall, I thought the season was successful. We played very well against tough teams. The real low spot was the Juniata Tournament, when LB was injured and could not make the trip. That tournament was the worst we played all season. I thought we came back and finished the season strongly. I think as a team we did more offensively than any other team in the DIAC. I really felt we could win! We had it in our hands; we won the first two games and lost the last three. I was pleased with the play of my middle hitters, LB and Daphne Hand. I was also pleased with my seniors Lorraine Orr and Nancy Dorn, they showed great leadership all season."

Hitters prepare for the set.

Greensboro College Men's Basketball Team finished their season with a 10-16 overall record and a 7-7 Dixie Conference record. They were defeated in the quarter-finals of the conference tournament by eventual tourney winners CNC, 66-65, a score which typified many of the games during the 87-88 campaign. Even though the Hornets' overall record was a step down from last year's 13-14 mark, they did well with a nucleus of only two starters from last year's team. Paul Newman returned to lead the Hornets this year earning 1st team all conference and 2nd team all region honors with his team leading 21.2 ppg and 7.9 rbs per game averages. The only other Hornet who finished the season in double figure scoring was junior, Russell Anderson, who averaged 14.0 ppg. With only 2 players scoring in double figures, it was easy to see why the Hornets had some trouble in the win column. Coach Tribbett and Coach Groninger have already begun to recruit to ensure GC of having a good team next year.

The GC Women's Basketball season could be described as the beginning of a new era as twelve team records fell, including most wins (20), best finish in the regular season, most consecutive wins (7), and highest ranking in the region. Along with the team records, twelve individual marks also fell as Senior Lorraine Orr closed out her career in "record setting" fashion. Lorraine set single game marks in field goals made and tied the mark for most points scored in a game which she shares with teammate Susan Gaspersen (34). Individual season marks also fell as Orr set seven new records, which included highest point average (21.1), most points (548), and best field goal % (54%). Coach Stockton will surely miss this type of output from 1st team all conference and 1st team all region player Lorraine Orr. Also to be missed is senior Carol Burns who has been a leader for four years. Great season Hornets!

DIAC

The 1988 Hornet Golf Team recently capped off their regular season with the DIAC Title. In the tournament at Northgreen Country Club, the Hornets were paced by medalist Marc Richter and Todd Simpson who both finished with a score of 151 which put them in a tie with one other golfer from rival school Methodist, for the lead in the contest. Richter won on the second hole of a sudden death playoff when he parred out and the other two golfers bogeyed. The team title was won by the Hornets after they easily outdistanced second place Methodist by ten strokes. This was the seventh conference title for 16-year head coach Jim Locke. The Hornets will participate in the national tournament which they are hosting at the Greensboro Country Club Farm Course.

GC hosted the NCAA Div. III National Golf Championship in May.

OUT IN

The 1988 GC Hornet Softball Team finished their season with an 8-22 overall record and a 7-7 mark in the DIAC. The Hornets under first year head coach Lisa Stockton played their always tough conference schedule and also competed against eight Division I schools which made the road rocky for the third year sport. They did however finish the season in fourth place and received an invitation to the DIAC Tournament. They were eliminated in the first round by conference first place finishers Virginia Wesleyan.

David keeps the ball low on his shot up the line.

The GC Men's Tennis Team finished their season with the conference tournament which they hosted at UNCG. The Hornets finished in a tie for seventh place under first year head coach Scott Groninger. The Hornets also sent their entire team to the conference tournament this year which bettered last year's participation of only two players. The highest seed for the Hornets was Raul Ascarrunz who entered the tournament as the #4 seed at his playing position. Next year looks better for the Hornets as they have a very young squad and recruiting has already produced some bright spots.

Sandy hits a topspin lob.

YOUR BEST SHOT

Gretchen returns a deep approach shot.

The GC Women's Tennis Team finished their season with a record of 6-8, the best ever for the Hornets. GC also placed third in the DIAC Tournament with strong performances by Brooke Emery at #3 singles and Elizabeth Budd and Emery at #3 doubles. Both made it to the finals of the tournament before being eliminated. Several individuals performed well throughout the season including Emery (13-4), Emery/Budd (11-3), Budd (8-8), and Shutt/Albright (7-7).

Brooke whips a cross-court winner.

Jenn hits her usual topspin forehand.

Elizabeth shows good form on her two handed backhand.

ATHLETIC

OUR LAST WORDS

Working on the yearbook this year has turned out to be quite a learning experience. There were always pictures to be taken (by our full-time photography staff) layouts to be drawn, copy to be typed, and at times we all felt a bit overwhelmed. But I'm proud to say that working together we met all of our deadlines and even had some fun along the way. I'd like to personally thank everyone in our "Yearbook Family", including Coach Lojko, Cynthia, Becky, Carolyn, Laura, Jennifer, Wallace, Kelly, and Kyle. Also Aimee Baucom for the pictures she contributed. Good luck to next year's staff. Keep up the tradition of meeting deadlines!

Thanks again,

Low J. Lancaster

Co-Editor and Photographer

Being one of the Co-editors of the Echo has been an interesting experience to say the least. I really didn't know what I was getting myself into when I agreed to the job, but thanks to a great staff, we got it done. Kyle, thanks for making us laugh with your unusually headlines and captions. Wallace, thanks for doing all the little, but most important jobs and never complaining about it. Becky, the job's all yours next year. Carolyn, how about writing copy on graduation! You did go to that event, didn't you? Jennifer we've missed you. Lora, my camera happy partner, whose ideas was it to take on this job anyway? Coach, congratulations! You have just been awarded the typist of the year award. A special thanks goes to Aimee for her help with the photography. I hope everyone enjoyed it.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Galinas
